

Scholarly journals, politics, and freedom of speech

Venue: The House of Science and Letters, lecture hall 104

(Kirkkokatu 6, Helsinki, Finland)

Date: June 2nd 2017, 9:30–15:15

9:30–10 Coffee

Head of publications Johanna Lilja from The Federation of Finnish Learned Societies will act as moderator for the day.

10–12 Value of Open Access for civil societies

Opening words, Johanna Lilja

KEYNOTE: OpenEdition, Pierre Mournier, manager of international affairs + comments from Kirsi Pauliina Kallio PhD

KEYNOTE: The Hungary case, Edit Herczog, Managing Director, Vision & Values + comments from Emilia Palonen PhD

12–12:45 Lunch (at own expense)

12:45–14 Publications in a chain of open science and research

The role of Finnish scholarly journals in the civil society, Riitta Koikkalainen, information specialist from the National Library of Finland

The role of Finnish scholarly journals in the funding of universities, Janne Pölönen, coordinator in The Federation of Finnish Learned Societies

The value of domestic academic journals for researchers; Johanna Vuorelma, postdoctoral researcher, Network for European Studies, University of Helsinki & Tuukka Tammi PhD, editor-in-chief, National Institute for Health and Welfare

13:45–14 Coffee break

14–14:45 Scholarly journals, politics, and freedom of speech

Panel moderated by associate professor Mikael Laakso from the Hanken School of Economics.

Other participants: Edit Herczog, Pierre Mournier, senior advisor Sami Niinimäki, Ministry of Education and Culture; Emilia Palonen PhD, chair of Finnish Association of Scholarly Publishing

15–15:10 Closing words, Sami Niinimäki

Seminar is produced by the Kotilava project (Finnish academic journals towards immediate open access).

SPEAKERS

Edit Herczog

Managing Director, Vision & Values; MEP (Hungary) 2004–2014, Horizon 2020

<http://apcoworldwide.com/about-us/our-people/bios/edit-herczog>

<https://be.linkedin.com/in/editherczog>

<http://ec.europa.eu/programmes/horizon2020/>

Kirsi Pauliina Kallio

Academy of Finland Research Fellow; editor-in-chief of Fennia – International Journal of Geography; Chair for the Society for Regional and Environmental Studies that publishes the journal Alue & Ympäristö

http://www.uta.fi/jkk/yhteystiedot/hallintotiede/kallio_kirsi.html

Riitta Koikkalainen

information specialist at the National Library of Finland, Kotilava project

<http://www.kotilava.fi>

Mikael Laakso,

associate professor, Hanken School of Economics.

<https://www.hanken.fi/en/person/mikael-laakso>

Johanna Lilja,

head of publications, The Federation of Finnish Learned Societies.

<http://www.tsv.fi>

Pierre Mournier

manager of international affairs, OpenEdition

OpenEdition brings together four platforms dedicated to electronic resources in the humanities and social sciences. <http://www.openedition.org/>

Sami Niinimäki

senior advisor, Ministry of Education and Culture. <http://openscience.fi/>

Emilia Palonen

PhD, chair of Finnish Association of Scholarly Publishing; Senior Lecturer, Department of Political and Economic Studies, University of Helsinki.

<http://blogs.helsinki.fi/epalonen/>

Janne Pölönen, coordinator in The Federation of Finnish Learned Societies

Tuukka Tammi, PhD, editor-in-chief of Yhteiskuntapolitiikka, National Institute for Health and Welfare

Johanna Vuorelma, postdoctoral researcher, Network for European Studies, University of Helsinki